Win a Free Year of Tuition at The Children's Courtyard Summer Open House Event

Texas, March 24, 2011 – The Children's Courtyard – a leader in early education and child care throughout Texas – will be hosting Summer Open House events at all of its schools on Thursday, April 14th from 4:30 p.m. until 7:30 p.m. To find the location nearest you, simply visit www.childrenscourtyard.com and enter your zip code. All families who attend the event can register to win a year of free tuition (restrictions apply).

In addition to the opportunity to win free tuition, families will be able to experience the exciting summer program being offered at The Children's Courtyard during the Open House event. Highlights may include fun sessions in sports, arts, and cooking; school readiness activities; and onsite demonstrations from local vendors.

“Research shows that children often lose the equivalent of more than two months of learning over the summer,” said Michelle Salcedo, director of education for The Children's Courtyard. “That's why we offer a summer program that is not only filled with fun activities that children love, but one that also helps children go back to school prepared to learn and often ahead of some of their peers.”

Local families are encouraged to attend and participate in all of the festivities.
